

Coming to Colonial Williamsburg
January 27–30, 2016

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation & the Carriage Association of America present ...

the fifth biennial International Carriage Symposium

“Over the River and Through the Woods: Trips, Tours and Travels by Horse-drawn Vehicles”

Join us at Colonial Williamsburg to hear these carriage scholars, from Europe and North America, speaking on the following topics ...

STEPHAN BROECKX (Belgium) – “The Japanese Imperial Mews: The Emperor’s Ceremonial Horses and Carriages”

SSG JOHN S. FORD, USA (United States) – “To Carry the Honored Dead: The Army Caissons at Arlington National Cemetery”

COLIN HENDERSON (Great Britain) – “From 4:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.: The Royal Mews Undertakes a Grand Royal Event”

BJÖRN HÖIE (Norway) – “Out and Around the Norwegian Fjords: The Native Country Vehicles of Norway”

GREG HUNT (United States) – “Military Tack: Harnesses for Army Escort Wagons and Artillery Teams”

MONICA KURZEL-RUNTSCHNEINER (Austria) – “How the Victors Gather: Equestrian Equipages at the Congress of Vienna, 1815”

LAURIER LACROIX (Canada) – “Canadian Artist Cornelius Krieghof: Immortalizing the Sleighs of the Canadian Habitant”

ANDREAS NEMITZ (Germany) – “Alpine Excursions: Travels over the Alps by Coach and Five”

RICHARD C. V. NICOLL (United States) – Address during the Saturday-evening Banquet: “Time I Hung Up My Whip”

JOSH RUFF (United States) – “Delancey Kane’s Tally-Ho: An Icon of American Road Coaching”

MICHAEL SANBORN (United States) – “Beckoning Avalon: The Banning Family Carriages of Catalina Island”

DAVID SNEED (United States) – “The Military Escort Wagon: Transporting Army Ordnance on the Frontier”

ALEXANDER SOTIN (Russia) – “On the Streets of Moscow: The Horse-drawn Turnouts of the Russian People”

KEN WHEELING (United States) – “The Mountain House Coaches: Tours through New Hampshire’s Leafy Glens”

Questions? Contact the Carriage Association office at 859-231-0971 or info@caaonline.com.

