‘Meet A Museum’

CAA Tour

July 12-14, South Bend, Indiana

Meet us in South Bend!

This casual, fun weekend is open to CAA members, space is limited. The trip includes ‘Welcome’ Buffet dinner; admission to The Studebaker Museum; lunch at Tippecanoe Place; bus trip to Auburn with admission to Kruse and Cord Duesenberg museums; Saturday lunch; Saturday dinner; talks; accompanied by CAA staff.

Getting There

South Bend is south of the Michigan state line and is easily accessible from the Indiana Toll Road Interstate 80/90 as well as U.S. highways 6, 20, 31 and State Roads 2, 4, 23, 104, 331 and 933. South Bend International Airport is host to several rental car companies, taxi and limousine services.

The Studebaker Museum is located at 201 South Chapin Street, South Bend, IN 46601.

What Else To Do in the Area

While you’re in the South Bend area, why not try one or more of these activities:

- The Snite Museum of Art, considered one of the finest university art museums in America
- The Otis Bowen Museum, he started as a rural country doctor and became Secretary of Health and Human Services under Ronald Reagan
- South Bend Chocolate Company - home to one of the largest collections of chocolate memorabilia in the world, including a 1,300-year-old Mayan chocolate pot

In the Auburn area these museums are within walking distance of the Kruse Car Museum:

- The Early Ford Museum
- The National Automobile & Truck Museum
